Logra Tu Dream (Achieve Your Dream): How 50 Successful Latinos & Latinas Turned Their Dreams Into Reality

Achieving the American Dream has become increasingly difficult for many Latinos, despite the huge opportunities, because there is a lack of mentorship and inspiration from Latino role models ... but it doesn't have to be that way.

This audiobook will tell you how 50 of the most successful Latinos and Latinas in America turned their dreams into reality. These inspirational people share their stories, providing us insight into the mindset, actions, and habits that allowed them to overcome barriers and conquer fears, and to achieve what they once thought was impossible.

After listening to this, you will be confident that your dream is possible if you learn and take action on the proven principles you discover here. They will:

- Show you that "si se puede" (it is possible)
- Teach you how to adopt the mindset of success
- Inspire you to dream big
- Show you the most important asset that you need to invest in
- Prove to you why you need to be grateful, give and surround yourself with the right people to be successful
- Inspire you to get mentored and take massive action

As Robert Renteria says, "If your dream is big enough, the odds don't matter." So dream big, keep the fire in your belly burning, and you will logra tu dream!
