Yourguide To The Irish Pubs Of Boston Jim Molis, Charles Kelley

A guidebook to 101 of the best Irish pubs, restaurants and nightclubs in and around Boston.

Boston is often called the capital of Irish America. It was the destination of over 100,000 Irish fleeing the Great Famine of 1845-1850. The children of the Famine Generation moved forward in Boston, defining their place in its society. Accordingly, the influence of Irish culture is reflected in many of Boston's attractions and institutions.

A "Boston Experience" is a very Irish experience, and would not be complete without a visit to one of its Irish pubs. Boston's Irish pubs reflect both the richness of Ireland's heritage and the vibrancy that is modern Ireland. Much of the best Boston has to offer in dining, music and nightlife can be found in its Irish pubs. We're sure you'll find your perfect pub in this book.
