Scomparso (Raggi gialli) (Italian Edition) Joseph Hansen

Dopo la scoperta di una macchina finita sotto a un ponte, la polizia dichiara la morte per incidente del suo proprietario, il famoso speaker radiofonico e musicista Fox Olsen, nonostante il corpo non sia stato ritrovato. Giunto sul posto per conto di una società di assicurazioni, l'investigatore Dave Brandstetter inizia a raccogliere prove evidenti che conducono in altre direzioni e sollevano numerosi interrogativi. Per esempio, cosa si nasconde dietro l'amicizia apparentemente innocente che lega la moglie della vittima al manager dell'uomo? E come mai un suo vecchio amico ha deciso di farsi rivedere proprio adesso dopo vent'anni? Queste sono solo alcune delle domande a cui dovrà trovare risposta Brandstetter, in una intricatissima faccenda che affonda le sue radici nel passato. Pubblicato negli Stati Uniti nel 1970, Scomparso è il primo episodio della serie di culto incentrata su un detective privato dichiaratamente gay, che riunisce in sé le caratteristiche dell'hard boiled miscelate con elementi psicologici e caratteriali complessi che rendono il protagonista lontano dallo stereotipo dell'investigatore dal cazzotto facile, sempre circondato da belle pube e bottiglie vuote di whiskey. Veterano della guerra di Corea, Brandstetter è virile ma educato e di sani principi, compassionevole ma volitivo, comunque capace di usare la violenza, se necessario nella Los Angeles degli anni Settanta e Ottanta. La scrittura misuratissima ed elegante di Hansen evoca atmosfere che ricordano Chandler e Ross Macdonald; i dialoghi impeccabili, la perfetta caratterizzazione dei personaggi e l'uso sapiente degli elementi classici del "whodunit" hanno decretato nel tempo il successo mondiale dell'autore e del suo indimenticabile personaggio.
