Twelve year-old Ginnie and her BFF schemed to get Ginnie's widowed dad to fall in love with Tillie's divorced mom. It worked. But before they could become 'for real' sisters, Ginnie stumbled across her dead mom's journals. Which was totally awesome sauce... until her dad took them away and won't tell her why. Now all their plans are starting to unravel. If that's not bad enough, Ginnie's favorite uncle drops the mother of all bombshells and leaves her in a maze of uncertainty. While her head is still spinning from that news, a blast from her late mother's past shows up and makes Tillie goes nutburgers. Ginnie realizes her best friend has her own agenda and Tillie's plans to merge their families may not be so innocent. SIMPLY WEST OF HEAVEN is a contemporary MG novel that follows Ginnie West as she tries to make sense of one too many curve balls tossed her way in the most pivotal summer of her life.
