Boy Republic: Patrick Pearse and the Weapon of Education Dr. Brendan Walsh

Patrick Pearse, teacher, poet, and one of the executed leaders of the 1916 Rising has long been a central figure in Irish history. The book provides a radically new interpretation of Patrick Pearse's work in education, and examines how his work as a teacher became a potent device in pre-independent Ireland. The book provides a complete account of Pearse's educational work at St Enda's school, Dublin where a number of insurgents such as William Pearse, Thomas McDonagh and Con Colbert taught. The author draws upon the recollections of past-pupils, employees, descendants of those who worked with Pearse, founders of schools inspired by his work - including descendants of those who worked with Pearse, founders of schools inspired by his work - including the descendants of Thomas McSweeney and Louis Gavan Duffy - and a vast array of primary source material to provide a comprehensive account of life at St Enda's and the place of education within the 'Irish-Ireland' movement and the struggle for independence.
