The innovative architectural styles that have emerged from the various climates of Colombian landscape are presented in these insightful essays and spectacular photographs. More than three hundred locations in Colombia fill the three sections divided up by climate zones: hot weather, warm weather, and cold weather. As the creativity of traditional and emerging Colombian architects is revealed, so to is the stunning landscape of a country whose varying climate and indigenous materials—such as guadua, a local bamboo—have influenced Colombian architectural form and content.

Las novedosas propuestas arquitectónicas que han emergido de los climas variados de Colombia están presentados con ensayos penetrantes y fotografía espectacular. Construidas con la riqueza climática y natural de un país ecuatorial como Colombia, estas casas de más de trescientas locaciones están enmarcadas en tres capítulos: clima cálido, clima templado y clima frío. Las casas no sólo muestran la diversidad creativa de nuevos y tradicionales arquitectos colombianos, sino la riqueza del uso de materiales autóctonos como la guadua, así como la importancia del piso climático donde se localizan para determinar su diseño y proyección.
