Based on the beloved Christy novel with over 30 million copies sold! Christmas is the topic of discussion for Miss Christy and her class at the Cutter Gap schoolhouse. One by one the students share their favorite Smoky Mountain holiday traditions---baking, hunting, and other fun activities. However, Ruby May Morrison, the usually outgoing, mischievous redhead, is silent. When she unexpectedly announces her plans to spend Christmas with her father, Christy is doubtful since Ruby Mae's father has not been in her life in years. Ruby Mae sets out, climbing up the snow-covered mountain path to her family's abandoned cabin. There she prepares a lonely Christmas celebration. But, disaster strikes when Ruby Mae falls injured. Worried, Christy goes to check on Ruby Mae and arrives to find her unconscious and lying in the snow. She brings her to a neighboring cabin where the surprise of Ruby Mae's life awaits. This heartwarming story of renewal of relationships assures children how much God cares for everyone as it illustrates the true meaning of Christmas. Through imaginative and innovative products, Zonderkidz is feeding young souls.
