Letters Lived: Radical Reflections, Revolutionary Paths Sheila Sampath

Letters Lived: Radical reflections revolutionary paths features a diverse group of international and cross-generational social justice activists who share the incredible journeys they have taken since their teen years—and what they wish they could have known back then.

How do we learn to trust and love ourselves, as well as navigate our bodies, families, identities and communities? These candid, powerful and relatable letters engage the personal and the political as we grow: whether combating social injustice, reconciling racial and cultural backgrounds, sexualities and genders, or the process of building strong communities.

Edited by activist and educator Sheila Sampath, Letters Lived reminds us that even though it isn't always easy, we all have the power to shape our world.
