"Meant for More" is a brand new book from Daniel Rendelman that will help you and experience the abundant life promised in the Scriptures. This is a must read for anyone who is sick of religion and desires to walk with the Almighty in intimacy and fulfillment. Inspired by the words of a homeless man who was disgruntled with the empty promises of faith without change, "Meant for More" will explain what it really means to be the "temple of the Holy Spirit." You will learn how the tabernacle's three compartments mirror your spirit, soul, and body and how to yield to the Ark of the Covenant inside of you. Using the Hebrew language, Rendelman gives fresh insights into the Messiah's influence on your life today. Learn deep revelation about true obedience, living in perfect peace, effective spiritual warfare, how to pray the Scriptures with authority, why praise is important, what the Bible says about overcoming the world's strongholds, exactly what it means to be "in Christ," and much more. You will be equipped and encouraged to walk in victory as you discover that you were "Meant for More" than what you have experienced in the past.
