A Story of Devotion and Love: In memory of Maggie (My Mommy) Gone But Not Forgotten P A Eubanks

This short little book is in loving memory of my Mother, Maggie Eubanks who passed exactly one year ago today on 12/1/13. Its to celebrate her life, legacy and all she wanted for her family. In addition its to encourage others to step up and care for elderly in their lives. A article in "Times Magazine" mentions that China wants to mandate family caring for the elderly into law. I don't believe you should never have to make a person do what really should be a natural thing to care for the ones who cared for you! It's time as a society to do better.
