"I listen once more as the caller orgasms happily and grit my teeth unable to bear the fact that my own fantasies are once more denied. The next one will be mine, I promise myself, and I'll make him taste it all!" Suzanne is just a woman trying to make ends meet after a bad relationship. Her work on the sex chat lines is fun and slightly crazy, she's also very good at it. However, her alter ego - Rose is really the one pulling the... Strings? When Rose has enough of Suzanna's inhibitions she takes over and bodies start to appear all over the city, suffocated while enjoying their final bout of pleasure. Unfortunately for Rose, her cravings soon come to the notice of the police and one young female officer finally sees an opportunity rather than a simple arrest. Sex and violence abound in this daring new book from the creator of How to Talk Dirty. If you want to understand the real dynamic between desire and destruction, dominance and submission, madness and sanity then enter Rose's dominion. Nothing is ever quite as it seems.
