La sindrome di Mary Poppins (Italian Edition) Luisa Barbieri

Una tata, una piccola Mary Poppins, alberga dentro ogni donna, nella capacità femminile di comprendere, supportare, accogliere. A volte, però, questo ruolo tende a ingigantirsi sino a dominare il mondo interiore, rinchiudendolo nella gabbia degli stereotipi e dell'asservimento a un sistema declinato al maschile. È così che si diventa mogli, madri e figlie pronte al sacrificio di se stesse, votate a un'esistenza che qualcun altro immagina e rappresenta, fino a soffrire il disagio di vivere. Quindici toccanti storie, raccolte dall'autrice nel corso di decenni di professione medica, in cui altrettante donne narrano la propria battaglia di emancipazione, la ribellione alla violenza e all'omologazione, fino alla vittoria sul consolidato, l'immutabile, il pregiudizio.
