Abstracting Geographic Information in a Data Rich World: Methodologies and Applications of Map Generalisation (Lecture Notes in Geoinformation and Cartography)

Research in the field of automated generalisation has faced new challenges in recent years as a result of technological developments in web-based processing, new visualisation paradigms and access to very large volumes of multi-source data generated by sensors and humans. In these contexts, map generalisation needs to underpin ‘on-demand mapping’, a form of mapping that responds to individual user requirements in the thematic selection and visualisation of geographic information. It is this new impetus that drives the research of the ICA Commission on Generalisation and Multiple Representation (for example through its annual workshops, biannual tutorials and publications in international journals). This book has a coherent structure, each chapter focusing on core concepts and tasks in the map generalisation towards on-demand mapping. Each chapter presents a state-of-the-art review, together with case studies that illustrate the application of pertinent generalisation methodologies. The book addresses issues from data gathering to multi scaled outputs. Thus there are chapters devoted to defining user requirements in handling specifications, and in the application and evaluation of map generalisation algorithms. It explores the application of generalisation methodologies in the context of growing volumes of data and the increasing popularity of user generated content.

From reader reviews:

Jon Cerrone:

This book untitled Abstracting Geographic Information in a Data Rich World: Methodologies and Applications of Map Generalisation (Lecture Notes in Geoinformation and Cartography) to be one of several books this best seller in this year, this is because when you read this guide you can get a lot of benefit onto it. You will easily to buy this specific book in the book retail store or you can order it by using online. The publisher in this book sells the e-book too. It makes you easier to read this book, as you can read this book in your Smartphone. So there is no reason for you to past this guide from your list.

Elliot Weber:

Abstracting Geographic Information in a Data Rich World: Methodologies and Applications of Map Generalisation (Lecture Notes in Geoinformation and Cartography) can be one of your basic books that are good idea. We all recommend that straight away because this guide has good vocabulary that could increase your knowledge in terminology, easy to understand, bit entertaining but nevertheless delivering the information. The copy writer giving his/her effort to get every word into pleasure arrangement in writing Abstracting Geographic Information in a Data Rich World: Methodologies and Applications of Map Generalisation (Lecture Notes in Geoinformation and Cartography) nevertheless doesn't forget the main stage, giving the reader the hottest and based confirm resource data that maybe you can be considered one of it. This great information may drawn you into new stage of crucial pondering.

Charles Smith:

The book untitled Abstracting Geographic Information in a Data Rich World: Methodologies and Applications of Map Generalisation (Lecture Notes in Geoinformation and Cartography) contain a lot of information on this. The writer explains the woman idea with easy approach. The language is very straightforward all the people, so do not necessarily worry, you can easy to read that. The book was published by famous author. The author provides you in the new era of literary works.
