From Fakir to 730 Elena Manzoni

After seven years, not passed in Tibet, nor with Brad Pitt, but tracing a path of life through impossible talks and many many thoughts, the thirty year old Elly sums up and draws a comic portrait – a bit bitter for her generation, called to choose between a life without color and creativity and its biggest passion, the only one capable of changing the world: the passion of being themselves!

The message is simple, but powerful: rubbles are the ideal ground on which to build the most beautiful world you can imagine: YOUR world!

When the page is blank, it's your time to write the story. You are not a spectator, but the director and the star!
