Amber McKinsey is excited to learn she's been accepted as a summer intern for the Harrington museum. Working under Dr. Brandon Selman is the opportunity she needs to determine the direction of her future studies. But the reality is not the dream, and her own secrets threaten to undo her.

Then a valuable artifact disappears and Amber is the likely suspect. How can Amber leave the shadows of the past behind when they follow her so closely? And could Brandon have misjudged a woman so badly again?
