THE WOLFE BROTHERS FIND THEMSELVES facing a conspiracy that reaches into the highest levels of government. Objects of guilt by association in an electronic world capable of watching and listening to their every move, they re-discover they need each other. Traversing the country ahead of pursuers, utilizing their skills in data analytics, technology, and survival to unearth the real perpetrators of an attempted assassination of the president of the United States; the brothers use their combined expertise against their pursuers. At the same time; Selena Lee, the Vice President, finds herself in the middle of the hunt for the Wolfe brothers entangled within a web of lies and deception that threaten her entire career. Facing a scheme to promote national fear, the brothers must reconnect, rethink, and reengineer their relationships with one another: only together can they survive.
